La
vie
est
belle

The image features the French phrase "La vie est belle" written in a fluid, black cursive script. The text is arranged in four lines: "La" on the first, "vie" on the second, "est" on the third, and "belle" on the fourth. The word "belle" is notably larger and more decorative, ending with a long, sweeping flourish. A small, simple heart symbol is positioned to the right of the word "est". The entire phrase is surrounded by a sparse arrangement of small black dots, some placed above and below the letters, and others scattered around the overall composition.
